The Tycoon's Tender Triumph Oct 01 2022 Ever since she'd realized men were more than just irritants, Chloe had been fascinated by Sam Marchant. As the years went by, that fascination had grown into infatuation, to the point where simple dates with other men left her cold and unmoved. So when Sam showed up in her life once again, larger than life and sexier than ever, Chloe was furious that she still had feelings for this man who would take her out to dinner one night, talk and laugh and make her feel special, then go out with another woman the following night. She tried very hard to hate Sam for that betrayal, but her body couldn't resist the allure of his magnificent physique. It was like her mind was telling her to run but her feet were...not just standing still but wrapping themselves around Sam's waist while her mouth kissed him with all the longing and need pent up for years. Sam stepped in and gave her the courage to follow her dream. And that led to one incredible night in his bed. A night Sam was unwilling to allow being a one night stand. Getting Chloe to the altar though was going to be his biggest challenge because she was afraid of him for reasons she refused to discuss. He would win though, and he'd show her a love as big as the Texas sky. She just had to trust herself enough to let that love into her heart.
